SHOES, BOOTS AND GAITERS.

A very Extensive Supply.

IN Offering this stock of goods to the inhabitants of Newport and vicinity, I am aware that the satisfaction of making a good bargain is incomplete—it is not realized when the purchaser does not know that he is receiving for his money the very best return. To give, in this case full assurance, I will say, that whilst the above goods are too valuable to allow of being purchased at low rates than other goods in market, I will notwithstanding, sell them at such prices as cannot fail to secure a continuance of that custom which I already have so largely and so liberally received.

☞ As the sun in all splendor, was peeping over the eastern hills, a newly married man exclaimed—

"The glory of the world is rising!"

His wife, who happened to be getting up at that moment, taking the compliment to herself, simpered—

"What would you say, my dear, if I had my silk gown on?"

☞ "Jemima, what do ye think Sal told Ned Bobbles, last night, when he was sparkin' her?" "Shut up, child, what are you talking about?" "No, but I hearn her I did. She told Ned Bobbles she kinder felt—" "Hush you little rascal! Hush or I'll take your skin off!" and poor Sally looked as red as a boiled lobster. "Oh, git out, Sal, I will tell! She told Ned Bobbles she kinder felt scared tu death and tickled tu!"

THE DAILY NEWS.

Newport:

WEDNESDAY MAY 3, 1848.

BY O. F. JACKSON, 97-THAMES-ST.

☞Advertisers will please bear in mind that the circulation of the DAILY NEWS is more than DOUBLE that of the Daily Herald, and greater than the combined circulation of the Daily and Weekly Herald. As one proof of this fact, the list of Letters remaining in the Post-Office is advertised in the NEWS, as BY LAW REQUIRED.

☞Early yesterday morning the sky was overcast, and there was every appearance of rain; but the sun, at last, found its way through the clouds, and the day was sufficiently pleasant for all necessary purposes, and the children, particularly, were not disappointed. All things considered, it was the most quiet Election which we have had for many years, and everything passed off well, without any accident to mar the joyousness of those who always hail its approach with gladness. To us, it is ever a weary occasion, and we are heartily thankful when it is over.

RHODE ISLAND LEGISLATURE.

FIRST SESSION.

The usual procession was formed at ten o'clock, in front of the Boarding House of Mrs. Murry, in Pelham street, in the following order:—

American Brass Band.

Artillery Company,

Col. Perry.

Sheriff of the County of Newport.

His Excellency the Governor, Lieut. Governor and suite.

Secretary of State, Attorney General and General Treasurer.

Town Sargeant of Newport.

Members of the Senate.

Deputy Sheriff of the County of Newport.

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Members of the House of Representatives.

Deputy Sheriff.

Citizens and Strangers.

The procession moved up Thames street, up the Parade, to the State House when the Governor, Members of the Legislature, &c., passed the Military, with the usual salute, into the State House,—each branch of the Legislature proceeding immediately to its respective Hall.

HOUSE.—At 11 o'clock, the Hon. Henry Y. Cranston, the senior member from Newport, took the Speaker's Chair and called the House to order. The following members then presented their credentials, and were duly sworn into office by Henry Bowen, Esq., Secretary of State:—

REPRESENTATIVES.

Newport—H. Y. Cranston, C. E. Robbins, Joseph Anthony, Henry E. Turner, Silas Ward.

Providence—Robert Angell, Jabez Gorham, Henry L. Bowen, William R. Watson, Samuel Ames, James T. Rhodes, Shubael Hutchins, George S. Rathbone, James C. Holden, Edward H. Hazard, W. Sheldon, Israel G. Manchester.

Charlestown—J. Gavitt.

Westerly—Nathan F. Dixon.

Borrillville—Esten Angell.

Little Compton—John Church.

West Greenwich—Nathan Carr.

Mr. Cranston then stated that the first business was to elect a speaker. Mr. Allen, of Warwick, nominated Sylvester G. Sherman, Esq., of North Kingston, and he was unanimously elected.

Mr. Sherman, on taking the chair, in a very neat and appropriate speech returned his thanks for the honor conferred on him.

Benjamin T. Eames and Wingate Hayes Esqrs., were unanimously reelected Clerks of the House for the year ensuing, and were sworn into office by the Speaker.

A message was received from the Senate informing the House that that body was orgagized and ready to proceed to business. The House sent a similar message to the Senate, and invited it to join the House for the purpose of opening the session with prayer.

The Senate joined the House, and a very excellent and impressive prayer was offered by the Rev. Henry Jackson, of Newport. The two bodies then seperated.

By invitation, the Senate then joined the House, in Grand Committee, for the purpose of receiving and counting the votes for General Officers, for the ensuing year.

IN GRAND COMMITTEE.

His excellency, Gov. HARRIS, took the chair, and called the Grand Committee to order, and requested the members to hand in the votes of the respective towns, as called by the Secretary. The ballots were received and a committee of three from each County was appointed to count them, consisting of the following:—NEWPORT COUNTY, Robbins, Coggeshall, Clarke.

PROVIDENCE COUNTY, Watson, Hazard, Patterson.

WASHINGTON COUNTY, Barber Davis, Gavit.

KENT COUNTY, Fisher, Spencer, Reynolds.

BRISTOL COUNTY, D'Wolf, Smith, Randall.

The Secretary of State, and the clerks of the House and Senate were added to the Committee.

SENATE.

The following members of the Senate appeared, at the hour of meeting, and were severally engaged:—

Newport—Edward Clarke.

Providence—Richard W. Greene.

Smithfield—Gideon Bradford.

Cranston—Charles Goodwin.

Johnston—Ephraim Winsor.

North Providence—Lemuel Angell.

Cumberland—Olney Ballou.

Portsmouth—William Barker.

The usual resolutions declaring the above named persons duly elected to their respecsive offices, for the year ensuing, was adopted.

The oath of office was then administed to the Governor and Lieut. Governor by the Secretary of State; and to the Secretary of State, Attorney General and General Trearurer, by the Governor.

The usual proclamation of the election was then made from the balcony of the State House, and a salute fired by the Artillery Company, from the Parade.

The Grand Committee then seperated.

The House adjourned until Wednesday morning, at 10 o'clock.

The Governor was then escorted to his quarters by the Military, and the customary salute fired.

☞The Perry, on her trip to Providence to-morrow will go into Greenwich in going up, and also on her return from Providence, for the accomodation of such passengers as wish to land there. She will leave here at 8 o'clock in the morning.

☞The steamer Argo arrived from Warren and Bristol, yesterday morning, bringing a large crowd to Election.—Among her passengers was a very unique military character, supposed by some to be Santa Anna.

☞The steamer Bradford Durfee arrived here from New York, yesterday, about 12 o'clock, and proceeded to Fall River.—

☞There were several gambling establishments in town yesterday, and several of the "green uns" were handsomely fleeced.

☞Mr. Nathan Dennis, of Portsmouth, had ninety-eight dollars picked from his pocket yesterday afternoon. Several men were arrested on suspicion and examined, but we did not learn whether the money was recovered.

"MURDER IS JEST."—On the 6th inst. a young man named Norman Bemis was shot down, in the town of Liverpool, Ill., on the evening of his marriage, while walking towards the house of a relation. As Bemis approached the house, he observed a person in female attire, carrying two guns, and saluting the figure, he stepped towards it; and was immediately shot dead. The figure proved to be a Mr. Nehemiah Northup, an acquaintance of Bemis, who with others, was engaged in getting up a charivari on the occasion of Bemis' marriage. He declared that it was an accident, and that he did not know the gun was loaded. It is said, that no unkind feelings existed between the parties.

☞In 1817, says the New York Sun, twenty barges did the whole carrying on the Mississippi, and 160 keel boats on the Ohio, making the whole tonage less than 7000 tons. In 1846 the steamboat tonnage alone was 219,055 tons, and the amount carried during the year, 3 110,336 tons, valued at $185,405,619. Who says this is not a great country?

☞Advertisers will please be patient.

GROWN SOME.—In 1810 the tax collected in Cincinnati amounted to $2,601, and in 1847 it amounted to $450,000.

☞The boys made a great display with the Chinese Artillery, last evening, notwithstanding it was contrary to the law in such case made and provided.

NEWPORT VICTUALING HOUSE.

WM. W. MORRIS, announces to the public, that he has opened a Victualling House in the premises lately occupied by Thomas Sherman, in Market Square, where he intends to be supplied with the best Oysters, Meat of every kind, Pastry, Cakes, &c. Hot suppers served up in good style, and every attention paid to those who may patronise the establishment. Captains of vessels and sea-faring men generally will find this a very convenient place to stop for a dish of Oysters or any thing the market affords. Apr24-tf.

MOST EXTRAORDINARY WORK:

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S

Private Medical Companion,

By Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of the Diseases of Women.

Sixth ed., 18mo, pp. 250. Price $1,

Twenty-five thousand copies sold in Three Months!

Years of suffering, of physical and mental anguish to many an affectionate wife, and pecuniary difficulties to the husband, might have been spared by a timely possession of this work.

It is intended especially for the married, or those contemplating marriage, as it discloses important secrets which should be known to them particularly. Truly, knowledge is power. It is health, happiness, affluence.

The revelations contained in its pages have proved a blessing to thousands, as the innumerable letters received by the author will attest.—Here, also, every female can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most efficient remedies, and certain mode of cure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject.

On the receipt of One Dollar, the "Married Woman's Private Medical Companion" will be sent (mailed free) to any part of the U. S. All letters must be addressed, post paid, to Dr. A. M. Mauriceau, Box 1124, New York City. Publishing Office, 129 Liberty street, New York.

Travelling Agents are informed that a few districts in Mass., and two other Eastern States, are yet unengaged. Application received [post paid] as above. Apr21

To enable Mankind to Die of Old Age without Disease.—The public may not be aware that the Rev. B. Hibbard's Vegetable Pills are the very best Family Medicine extant; perfectly reliable in every emergency. No one can foresee the moment when they or their children may be attacked. Disease comes like a thief in the night, and in times of peril, anxiety and danger, it is a relief to the mind to have at hand a remedy so certain, prompt, and efficient in warding off as well as curing disease. Ship Fever, Typhus Fever, Congestive and Billious Diseases are rife throughout the land. To travellers, emmigrants, soldiers, and families, we say neglect not to provide yourself with so potent a passifier of the blood; so safe, mild, and universal a remedy as these sovereign Vegetable Pills. Remember the name of Rev. B. Hibbard is on the label of each box. All others are spurious. T. R. Hibbard, M. D., 96 John-st. New York, proprietor. See advertisement in an other column. mr5s29

Strawberries.

MR Newland, (of Palmyra, Wayne Co., N. Y.) the proprietor of the MAMMOTH ALPINE, is in this place with his plants. The numerous testimonials from the most respectable inhabitants of Palmyra, are undoubted evidence of their superior quality to any others, continuing, as they do, to produce ripe fruit for over 2 months. Persons wishing plants will please to leave their cards at the boarding house of Joseph Fish, on Broad st., near the State House, or call on Mr. N. as he is distributing plants through the place. The following extract we copy from the Niagara Democrat of Lockport, N. Y.

THE MAMMOTH ALPINE STRAWBERRY:—The proprietor of this excellent variety of a delicious fruit, is in town, with some of his plants. Those desiring them may rely implicitly upon any representations he may make. We speak from a long personal acquaintance with him, and his general reputation for integrity. Those who certify to the character of his fruit, are well known, and highly respectable citizens of Palmyra.

To all Lovers of Pure and FRAGRANT TEAS!

WILLIAM NEWTON,

150 Thames Street, Newport Rhode Island,

AGENT FOR THE

CANTON & PEKIN TEA COMPANY

Of New York.

THIS Company, although it cannot boast of being "The oldest Tea Establishment in America," does claim to have sold during the two years of its existence, more good, pure, and unmixed Teas, and at lower prices, than any other similar establishment in the United States.

The following is a list of their retail prices, which will be found to be nearly the same as those of similar Companies. The only difference they claim is in the quality of the Teas.

The Teas mentioned in the above catalogue are put up in Quarter, Half and Pound Packages, made perfectly air tight, and warranted to be well worth the price marked on the label; if they are not found to be so, they can be returned at any time and the money will be refunded.

The Canton and Pekin Tea Company, although not the 'exclusive venders' of the justly celebrated 'Howqua Mixture,' can still accommodate their customers with it, at a price and of a quality which will bear comparison with any other.

The citizens of Newport and vicinity are respectfully invited to call at the above store, 150 Thames-st., and test the qualities of these Teas, as the company are confident, after purchasers make one trial, that an extensive custom will be secured.

Important Notice

THE Subscriber, in order to facilitate his own business and oblige his numerous patrons, has procured the services of a Carriage Smith, of long experience and consummate skill, whose services are now offered to the public.

If stable keepers and others have had cause for deploring (as they often have done,) the lack of a first rate Carriage Smith, one who could repair their jobs in a workmanlike manner, they will, it is hoped, give evidence of it by sending in their work immediatly, or make arrangement to do so, as soon as the jobs now on hand are discharged.

As the length of time he remains depends on the degree of patronag received it is important to those who intend to have work done to call without delay. Particular attention paid to setting Axletrees and tires.

All jobs done in a workmanlike manner, or no pay will be demanded.

Also Carriages of all kinds repaired to order at the shortest notice possible. New Carriages made to order.

Also a great variety of new and second hand Carriages for sale, among which are to be found

Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

A REMEDY for all diseases of the Hair, and is restorative in all cases where baldness is not beyond the reach of art.

Naught with beauty can compare,
With soft, glossy locks of hair;
If not endowed with such by nature,
Use Phalon's Hair Invigorator

The subscriber having devoted a considerable portion of his time for twenty years to the study of the skin and the human hair, also the best means of treating and curing the same, and having, in the course of his experiments made various changes and improvements in the different articles approved as the best for such purposes, has at length, after laborious research and deep investigation, succeeded in bringing to a perfection a composition, the virtues of which he challenges the world to excel.

The Chemical Hair Invigorator is composed of a number of vegetable ingredients of opposite qualities, and approved by the highest medical standard, the secret of blending and combining, which is known only to the subscriber, who has spared neither pains nor expense in bringing it before the public.

The Invigorator is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture of the hair never before attained, yet free from animal grease or essential oils. It cleanses the pores of the skin causes a healthy action of the blood vessels, nerves, &c., which feed the hair, thereby preventing baldness and gray hair, entirely frees the skin from scurf, dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to curl, and keeps it so—will positively change the hardest hair into the most soft and healthy and glossy state, also imparts to it a darker color, and a free use of it will keep both the skin and hair in a healthy and luxuriant state until the best period of life.

Ladies will find the Invigorator a great addition to the toilet, both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which when extended with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place whether plain or in curls. When used on children it keeps it lays the foundation of a good head of hair.

Invented and prepared by EDWARD PHALON, professor of Wig Making and Hair Cutting, 161 Broadway, New York.

A treatment on the Anatomy and Physiology of the Hair with directions for preventing baldness, removing dandruff and preserving the natural beauty and softness of the hair.

Price 50 cents per bottle—large size, $1. For sale wholesale and retail by GORTON ANDERSON, No. 151 Thames street, Newport, and by J. Balch & Son, 42 South Mansfield, Providence, and by druggists and hair dressers generally in Boston. [illegible]

Advertisements of this Office of Life Insurance now a days [illegible]

1st. Those in good health, of the proper age, and of sound constitution, will be insured at the lowest rate of premiums.

2d. The premium, if over $50, can be paid one fourth in cash, and three fourths in a sound note at 12 months, bearing 6 per cent interest and subject to assessment [illegible], or it may be paid weekly, monthly or yearly.

3d. Annual dividends of profits in scrip certificates which [illegible] and if required a loan [illegible] on the scrip will be made in cash—or the policy can be filled to increase the sum insured.

4th. No policy can be made beyond the amount of [illegible].

5th. Married women may insure the lives of their husbands [illegible] any demands of their creditors, if the premium does not exceed $300 per annum.

6th. Females may insure their debtors; or [illegible] the assets for the protection of creditors.

7th. An insurance can be made so that the sum insured will be paid on attaining a specified age, or sooner in the event of death.

8th. Medicines on policies will be paid three month's after notice and proof of death.

9th. No risk will be taken on any one life exceeding $5000, until the surplus profits amount to $50,000; then the amount of risk on a single life will be gradually extended as the funds of the Company augment.

10th. No Director or Officer can obtain a loan of the Company.

11th. When the net profits of the Company amount to $200,000, the excess will be applied towards the redemption of Scrip, giving priority to the first issued; but the amount of $200,000, in addition to the insurance fund, will be kept as a permanent fund, in which the members have a [illegible] interest.

12th. The funds of the Company to be invested by the Finance Committee in bonds and first mortgages on unencumbered real estate, the actual value of which is twice the amount loaned—or in stocks of the United States, or of the States of N.
